They have no beliefs, but they have religions.
Gods save us, yes?
The world we see is the true, yes?
“What are the gods? Gods are made by people, aren't they? That is to say that people can only believe people, because gods are people's creatures. It's funny. But I have some religions ... [to unbelieve].”
Many people can't feel free because of their creatures, not only gods, also including words, religions and commons.
I want to them clean up and be free.
Here it is, the dreams are coming true.
